

JOHNSON OHANA

2015 ANNUAL REPORT

Charitable Foundation

OUR MISSION

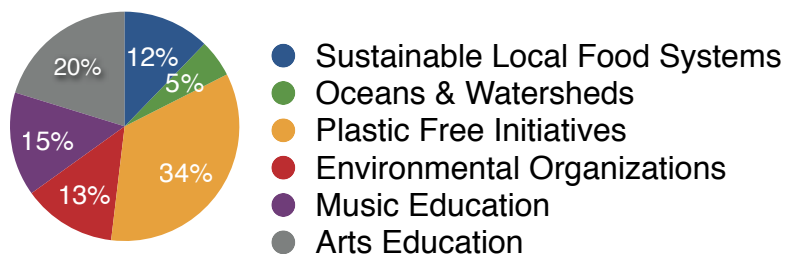

The Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation is a non-profit public charity founded in 2008 by Kim and Jack Johnson to promote positive and lasting change within communities by supporting organizations that focus on environmental, art, and music education.

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

In 2015, the Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation continued to support plastic free initiatives and sustainable local food systems. Jack and Kim Johnson took part in the 5 Gyres SEA Change research expedition and youth summit in the Bahamas, to raise awareness about solutions to plastic ocean pollution. Grant funding supported the SEA Change Youth Summit, which brought together 75 students to participate in hands-on activities and action projects.

In addition to environmental grantmaking, the Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation continued to support art and music education for youth, including Art Explorium's Creative Reuse Open House for Teachers which weaves together art and sustainability to promote reuse activities for students.

2015 CONTRIBUTIONS - $368,090

*Funding percentages vary from year to year

Over $ 3.8 million has been distributed to date, supporting more than 400 non-profit organizations.

Please visit www.JohnsonOhana.org for a complete list of grantees and grant guidelines

GRANTEE SPOTLIGHT

5 Gyres Institute engages people in design and policy solutions to reduce plastic waste, and hosts educational youth summits to encourage student action projects and behavior change.

North Shore Community Land Trust works to protect the North Shore of Hawaii, and engages youth as part of an annual Food Summit to strengthen a sustainable local food system.

Art Explorium provides a safe place to encourage children to create art, and hosts an annual Creative Reuse Open House for Teachers to promote environmental reuse projects.