

JOHNSON OHANA

Charitable Foundation

2014 ANNUAL REPORT

OUR MISSION

The Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation is a non-profit public charity founded in 2008 by Jack and Kim Johnson to promote positive and lasting change within communities by supporting organizations that focus on environmental, art, and music education.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS

In 2014, as part of Jack Johnson's From Here To Now To You tour, the All At Once community partnered with over 150 Non-Profit Partners throughout South America, North America and Hawai'i. The Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation offered direct and matching donations totaling $436,538 to these groups, working hard to promote plastic free initiatives and sustainable local food systems. Through the All At Once matching donation program, these partners were able to leverage an additional $650,000 from their own communities.

In addition to All At Once tour donations, the Johnson Ohana Charitable Foundation continued to support environmental, art and music education, distributing a total of over $362,000 in grants and donations in 2014.

2014 CONTRIBUTIONS - $799,263

*Funding percentages vary from year to year

Over $3.4 million has been distributed to date, supporting more than 400 non-profit organizations.
